ADD ONE MORE TO FIRE DEP'T; WANT ALARM SYSTEM

COUNCIL AUTHORIZES INCREASING DEPARTMENT ONE MAN; TO FIND COST OF INSTALLING FIRE ALARM SYSTEM

The proposed increase of the paid fire department to eight men which the Police & Fire Commission recommended was not authorized by the council although the aldermen decided to add one more man to the department. Following a long discussion it was decided that at least one man was needed to make the department more efficient in case of larger fires and at the same time not materially increase the cost of operating the department.

See Hopes For System

Ald. Link speaking on the fire department affairs told the council that a fire alarm system was more needed than an increased department. "If we had a department of fifty men, the whole town would burn down unless the department knew that there was a blaze," he said.

Other aldermen added their opinions along the same lines and upon a motion it was voted that the Police & Fire Commission be asked to investigate the cost of the same and report back at the next meeting of the council.

Order Patrolmen Clocks

The recommendation of the Police & Fire Commission to install a clock system for patrolmen to check in at the ends of their beats was accepted by the council. The clocks will in all probability be placed at the St. Paul station, west end of bridge, Elks Club and Library.

JOHN OSTROSKY IS WINNER AFTER ALL

DEFEATED CANDIDATE FOR EIGHTH WARD PLACE IN COUNCIL GETS SEAT WHEN GRANT BABCOCK RESIGNS

After being unsuccessful in two elections for a seat in the city council from the Eighth ward, John Ostrosky has been elected as an alderman from his ward. He was elected by the council last night to fill out the unexpired term of Grant Babcock, incumbent, who resigned on account of leaving the city. Ostrosky was tied with Alderman Babcock in the election nearly two years ago and lost the seat by a toss of a coin. Four years ago he ran a close second

Was Will of People

The selection of Mr. Ostrosky will no doubt be a popular choice in the ward as he was supported at the polls by practically half of the voters in the ward and several aldermen in speaking of his election felt they were making a choice which would be popular with the electors of that ward.

Alderman Babcock leaves soon for Delton, Wis., where he has been called on account of the illness of his parents. He will remain there indefinitely. His term expires next spring.

Lou Williams was the other candidate for the vacancy. The vote stood Williams 6, Ostrosky 10.

Set Interest Rate

The council authorized the new interest rate of six and one-half per cent to be charged by local banks for city paper. The new rate goes into effect. The banks are forced to rediscount city paper at six and one-half per cent and asked that they be allowed the new rate.

The first resolution on the $36,000 water works improvement and extension bonds was passed by the council.

Sidewalks occupied a considerable amount of time. Aldermen all joined in on the discussion admitting the poor condition of sidewalks in the residence and business districts.

BRING ACTION AGAINST CHICAGO HEADQUARTERS FOR SPANISH WAR VETS

Madison, Wis., Nov. 2.—Charges against Hans Rodd, sheriff of Oneida county, for refusal to release Peter Christ on order from Governor Blaine, were filed today with the governor by Joseph Wiesman of Rhinelander.

The governor has given the sheriff ten days to show cause why he should not be removed from office for his failure to comply with the pardon order and the warrant issued in the matter of the application of Christ for a pardon.

Hearing on the charges made against the peace officer has been set for November 14, at Madison. Sheriff Rodd will be required to defend his action at that time.

The trouble in this case started when Governor Blaine granted a pardon to Christ, who was serving four months in Jail for contempt growing out of violation of a court order in the paper mill strike at Rhinelander. Judge A. H. Reid of Wausau, who sentenced Christ advised the sheriff to hold him despite the Governor's pardon order, contending that he had no authority to over-rule a contempt sentence.

Christ was moved from Marathon county to Oneida county in the middle of the night before the pardon order was received, in order to get around releasing him. Governor Blaine then telegraphed ordering the sheriff to set him free, but met with refusal.

Christ completed his sentence yesterday and left jail. The proceedings which will follow, will determine the authority of the executive to pardon a man sentenced for contempt of court.

LEAGUE MEN TO PUSH CAMPAIGN

WORK IN WISCONSIN NOT AFFECTED BY NORTH DAKOTA SET BACK, NONPARTISAN LEADERS SAY

Madison, Wis., Nov. 2.—The Nonpartisan league in Wisconsin will continue its efforts toward expansion throughout this state, despite the action of the people of North Dakota in recalling the League Governor, L. J. Frazier, and electing an opposition candidate in his stead, Chester C. Platt, editor of the Nonpartisan Leader and spokesman for the organization, said today.

North Dakota's action he attributes largely to the failure of farm women to vote, while their city opponents went in force to the polls. The league, he says, has had so many hard battles to fight, and so little money with which to fight them, that a defeat was not unlooked for.

Work Continues

In Wisconsin organization work is declared to be going on and preparations made for the convention probably to be held in Madison, next June, when the political affiliations of the Wisconsin League will be determined.

Mr. Platt says that some difficulties are confronting the league in its effort toward expansion, as come before all farm organizations at the present time, when agriculture is in serious financial straits.

It is not believed by league officials that any special drive will be made in this state, now that they have met defeat in North Dakota. Work will be carried on, Mr. Platt says, as far as funds will permit, but without any increased attempt to push the organization.

Expect Victory

He believes, with other league officials here, that they will be victorious in the next North Dakota primaries to be held in the summer of 1922.

Just what connection will be maintained with the league by Governor Blaine and Senator La Folette during the coming campaign in Wisconsin, is not known at present. The governor has not taken leaders of the organization into his confidence, and it is known that he does not maintain any direct connection with them.

DR. WATERS TELLS CANCER DANGERS AT ROTARY CLUB

LOCAL PHYSICIAN SPEAKING ON STATE BOARD OF HEALTH REQUEST WARNS OF DANGERS OF DISEASE

The tremendous growth of danger from cancer was the subject of a talk at the noonday meeting of the Rotary Club given by Dr. D. Waters of this city. Dr. Waters stated that cancer was one of the main causes of death of people over forty years of age and that it was ranked with tuberculosis and other diseases in importance. The aim of the talk he explained was to disseminate information which would be helpful to the people. This is national cancer week in which the nation is warned of the dangers of the disease.

Not Contagious

"Cancer is not contagious or communicable. It is not hereditary, altho there appears a marked tendency among members of families to have it. It is not the dread disease if taken early. It is not a blood disease" Dr. Waters said. In explaining the cancerous condition the speaker said that it was the result of outlaw colony of cells in a certain section of the body which segregated themselves and tended toward very rapid growth. Vital statistics showed that one man out of every nine who died after the age of forty had cancer and one woman out of every eight over that age had cancer." One hundred thousand people die annually from cancer, he said. He pointed out that Wisconsin had the highest mortality rate from cancer of all the states in the union since 1916.

Can Be Cured

Dr. Waters explained that cancer in its permanent stages could not be cured but that the pre-cancerous conditions if properly diagnosed and promptly treated by the right kind of treatment would lead to a cure of the disease. He urged that all people who felt the danger signs and believed that they had symptoms of cancer go for several thorough examinations. The program of the Wisconsin State Board of Health was to acquaint the people of the dangers and tell them of the signs in order to make a systematic attempt to stamp out the disease. Of the several types of cancer the cancer of the stomach was said to be the most dangerous, hardest to diagnose and most difficult to treat. Women, the statistics showed, were more frequently victims of cancer.

The Rotary Club here was only one of the many organizations and societies asked to cooperate in dissemination of information to combat cancer.

CONTINUE BURCH CASE; INSANITY TO BE PLEA

(By Associated Press)

Los Angeles—The case of Arthur C. Burch, charged with the murder of J. Belton Kennedy, was continued on Tuesday until next Monday to give the district attorney's office time to prepare affidavits to combat an application for a trial to test Burch's sanity, made by defense attorneys.

The case of Mrs. Madalyne Obenchain, indicted jointly with Burch, was continued to the same time.

When Burch's case was called for trial, his counsel presented affidavits to the court asking that Burch be examined as to his sanity.

The affidavits were made by attorneys for Burch. They declared the application for a sanity test was based upon the "incoherent speech and actions" of the defendant during the last few days.

WOULD LEGALIZE BEER TO RAISE BONUS FUND

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Nov. 2.—A bill legalizing a four per cent tax on beer and light wines, the proceeds to be used in defraying the cost of the soldiers bonus, has been drafted by representative Brennan, Republican, of Michigan, and will be presented to congress as soon as the American Legion convention in Kansas City acts on the bonus question, it was announced today.

URGE ARMS PACT AT LEGION MEET

FAVOR ARMS LIMITATION BY MUTUAL AGREEMENT; WOULD PROTECT CHEMICAL INDUSTRIES

(By Associated Press)

Kansas City, Nov. 2.—Resolutions urging a world agreement among the leading nations on the matter of armaments was ready for presentation at the convention of the American Legion here today. The resolution set forth the legion's position as opposed to militarism and jingoistic policies, but favorable to preparedness and adequate protection of American principles. Limitation of arms by mutual agreement of nations, but no otherwise, was the point made by the resolution.

Protect Chemical Industries

A resolution recommending the promotion and protection of chemical industries within the United States was also ready for presentation. The real value of Germany's chemical industries to her in the great war was brought out, as was the fact that the American chemical industry which grew up during the war cannot maintain itself in the face of foreign competition, chiefly from Germany and Japan, without stringent protective measures.

Oppose Debs Release

Other resolutions which were expected to come before the convention today recommended the use of property now in the hands of the alien property custodian for the settlement of claims against Germany.

The redoubling of efforts to bring about the return of Grover C. Bergdoll, American slacker now in Germany, was demanded, and the release of Eugene Debs, now confined in the federal prison in Atlanta was opposed.

A resolution castigating Colonel George Harvey, American Ambassador to Great Britain, for his speech shortly after his arrival in London in which he discussed America's reasons for entering the war, was greeted with prolonged cheers. The resolutions committee directed the rejection of the resolution, however.

TYPES OF MATERIAL USED IN LOCAL HOMES

In the Tribune article about the new homes being built in Wisconsin Rapids, the names of materials used were confused in many instances. The word Kellastone was substituted for stucco in description of the types of materials used. It was found that Kellastone was only a trade name and that many of the houses had Magnestone and Elastica materials in the construction.

NATIONAL STRIKE THREATENED BY MINERS UNIONS

INJUNCTION GRANTED BY FEDERAL JUDGE ANDERSON AGAINST "CHECK-OFF" SYSTEM VIOLATES AGREEMENT

(By Associated Press)

Indianapolis, Nov. 2—Officers of the United Mine Workers of America are awaiting reports from the coal mining districts of the country on strike developments expected to result from telegrams sent yesterday advising officials to regard the discontinuance of the check off system, as ordered by Judge Anderson, a violation of the existing wage agreements with mine operators.

Several mines are already reported idle, and it is thought likely that a nationwide strike may result if mine operators attempt to discontinue the check-off system. The telegram, sent from union headquarters late Tuesday when it was learned that Judge Anderson's injunction was not yet definitely in effect, directly advised local union officers to regard the obeying of the court order by mine operators as a breaking off of the existing agreements. The telegram, signed by President John L. Lewis, vice-president Philip Murray, and Secretary William Green, said:

Strike Only Recourse

"Any abrogation or setting aside of any part or section of this agreement, including the section providing for the checking off of dues and assessments can not be regarded as other than a violation of the agreement and should be treated accordingly by the district officers and local unions."

While no course of conduct for union officials was outlined by the telegram, it was said authoritatively that the international officers regarded the strike as the union's only weapon to enforce a contract. The telegram was sent to officials in sixteen states where the check off provision obtains and where 350,000 of the 550,000 union mine workers in the country are employed.

Miners Out

Bicknell, Ind., Nov. 2—Thirteen mines in Knox county coal fields are idle in protest against the injunction write issued Monday by Judge Anderson in Federal Court against the "check-off" system.

Centralia, Ill., Nov. 2—Four hundred miners employed by the Marion County Coal Company refused to work today. It is understood that a committee asked the superintendent regarding the "check-off" system, and was told that the system would be continued until further orders were received.

Mr. Hull expects to leave for Washington where he will immediately take up his duties.

Mr. Hull was chosen chairman to succeed George White last night by a unanimous vote. Senator Carter Glass of Virginia, who led the fight against White, presented his name which was seconded by Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi, a supporter of Mr. White. Former Chairman White himself expressed his approval of the selection of Mr. Hull, and immediately handed in his resignation.

CONTINUE BURCH CASE; INSANITY TO BE PLEA

Los Angeles—The case of Arthur C. Burch, charged with the murder of J. Belton Kennedy, was continued on Tuesday until next Monday to give the district attorney's office time to prepare affidavits to combat an application for a trial to test Burch's sanity, made by defense attorneys.

The case of Mrs. Madalyne Obenchain, indicted jointly with Burch, was continued to the same time.

When Burch's case was called for trial, his counsel presented affidavits to the court asking that Burch be examined as to his sanity.

The affidavits were made by attorneys for Burch. They declared the application for a sanity test was based upon the "incoherent speech and actions" of the defendant during the last few days.

WOULD LEGALIZE BEER TO RAISE BONUS FUND

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Nov. 2.—A bill legalizing a four per cent tax on beer and light wines, the proceeds to be used in defraying the cost of the soldiers bonus, has been drafted by representative Brennan, Republican, of Michigan, and will be presented to congress as soon as the American Legion convention in Kansas City acts on the bonus question, it was announced today.

Brennan stated that many students of Prohibition predicted that medicinal beer and wine was merely the forerunner of the return of these beverages for general consumption.

An odd industry has grown at Coney Island. Many a rich prize is found by "beachcombers" after autumn winds drive the bathers away. With shovel and screen they sift the sands in search of money and jewelry.

URGE ARMS PACT AT LEGION MEET

FAVOR ARMS LIMITATION BY MUTUAL AGREEMENT; WOULD PROTECT CHEMICAL INDUSTRIES

(By Associated Press)

Kansas City, Nov. 2.—Resolutions urging a world agreement among the leading nations on the matter of armaments was ready for presentation at the convention of the American Legion here today. The resolution set forth the legion's position as opposed to militarism and jingoistic policies, but favorable to preparedness and adequate protection of American principles. Limitation of arms by mutual agreement of nations, but no otherwise, was the point made by the resolution.

Protect Chemical Industries

A resolution recommending the promotion and protection of chemical industries within the United States was also ready for presentation. The real value of Germany's chemical industries to her in the great war was brought out, as was the fact that the American chemical industry which grew up during the war cannot maintain itself in the face of foreign competition, chiefly from Germany and Japan, without stringent protective measures.

Oppose Debs Release

Other resolutions which were expected to come before the convention today recommended the use of property now in the hands of the alien property custodian for the settlement of claims against Germany.

The redoubling of efforts to bring about the return of Grover C. Bergdoll, American slacker now in Germany, was demanded, and the release of Eugene Debs, now confined in the federal prison in Atlanta was opposed.

A resolution castigating Colonel George Harvey, American Ambassador to Great Britain, for his speech shortly after his arrival in London in which he discussed America's reasons for entering the war, was greeted with prolonged cheers. The resolutions committee directed the rejection of the resolution, however.

TYPES OF MATERIAL USED IN LOCAL HOMES

In the Tribune article about the new homes being built in Wisconsin Rapids, the names of materials used were confused in many instances. The word Kellastone was substituted for stucco in description of the types of materials used. It was found that Kellastone was only a trade name and that many of the houses had Magnestone and Elastica materials in the construction.

NATIONAL STRIKE THREATENED BY MINERS UNIONS

INJUNCTION GRANTED BY FEDERAL JUDGE ANDERSON AGAINST "CHECK-OFF" SYSTEM VIOLATES AGREEMENT

(By Associated Press)

Indianapolis, Nov. 2—Officers of the United Mine Workers of America are awaiting reports from the coal mining districts of the country on strike developments expected to result from telegrams sent yesterday advising officials to regard the discontinuance of the check off system, as ordered by Judge Anderson, a violation of the existing wage agreements with mine operators.

Several mines are already reported idle, and it is thought likely that a nationwide strike may result if mine operators attempt to discontinue the check-off system. The telegram, sent from union headquarters late Tuesday when it was learned that Judge Anderson's injunction was not yet definitely in effect, directly advised local union officers to regard the obeying of the court order by mine operators as a breaking off of the existing agreements. The telegram, signed by President John L. Lewis, vice-president Philip Murray, and Secretary William Green, said:

Strike Only Recourse

"Any abrogation or setting aside of any part or section of this agreement, including the section providing for the checking off of dues and assessments can not be regarded as other than a violation of the agreement and should be treated accordingly by the district officers and local unions."

While no course of conduct for union officials was outlined by the telegram, it was said authoritatively that the international officers regarded the strike as the union's only weapon to enforce a contract. The telegram was sent to officials in sixteen states where the check off provision obtains and where 350,000 of the 550,000 union mine workers in the country are employed.

Miners Out

Bicknell, Ind., Nov. 2—Thirteen mines in Knox county coal fields are idle in protest against the injunction write issued Monday by Judge Anderson in Federal Court against the "check-off" system.

Centralia, Ill., Nov. 2—Four hundred miners employed by the Marion County Coal Company refused to work today. It is understood that a committee asked the superintendent regarding the "check-off" system, and was told that the system would be continued until further orders were received.

DEMOCRATIC LEADER HAS CAMPAIGN PLANS

(By Associated Press)

St. Louis, Nov. 2—The development of the Democratic National Committee into the most militant and efficient organization within his capacity, and the dissemination of facts concerning the shortcomings of the present national administration among the voters of the country, will be the policy of Cordell Hull, new chairman of the committee, according to his statement given out today. Mr. Hull expects to leave for Washington where he will immediately take up his duties.

Mr. Hull was chosen chairman to succeed George White last night by a unanimous vote. Senator Carter Glass of Virginia, who led the fight against White, presented his name which was seconded by Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi, a supporter of Mr. White. Former Chairman White himself expressed his approval of the selection of Mr. Hull, and immediately handed in his resignation.

HUNTER IS KILLED BY ACCIDENTAL DISCHARGE

Wausau, Wis.—Anton Rosner, 17 years old, was accidentally killed in the woods while hunting. He stood on a stump and in getting off the charge from a twelve gauge shotgun exploded. The charge struck him in the face and penetrated his brain, causing celebral hemorrhage.

RELIEVING UNEMPLOYMENT

If the work of President Harding's unemployment conference has not provoked as much public discussion as was anticipated, it is evidently for the reason that it evolved no unexpected, startling, conclusive and unique remedy—no hair-raising cure-all—but merely emphasized in the main the close-at-hand remedies which newspapers and individual business leaders have been pointing out for months, including:

Stimulation of buying by reduction of prices.

Encouragement of production by a liberal loan attitude on the part of banks.

A policy of co-operation on the part of trades unions in the matter of wage adjustments.

A reduction of freight rates.

An unafraid attitude on the part of prospective builders.

Prompt beginning of energetic prosecution of public improvements by city, county and state government as well as by the federal government.

In short, unemployment relief is not the business of any one individual agency or class, but is a nation-wide co-operative task. And it is gratifying that nearly every class seems ready to do its part, although it would all be spoiled by a railroad tie-up.

Building construction and public improvements are of particular strategic importance. The conference received from its construction committee a report showing that the United States is today short at least $10,000,000,000, worth of building. Nothing more than the initiation of even half of this delayed building construction is needed to send a new thrill of life along every business artery from one end of the country to the other.

MRS. REES SAYS SHE HASN'T HAD A SIGN OF RHEUMATISM FOR TWO MONTHS

"I am now sixty-two years of age, but the way I get around to do my housework one wouldn't think I was that old by a good many years," said Mrs. Ella Rees, 171 South Wyoming Place, Milwaukee, Wis.

"Yes, sir, I praise Tanlac to everybody, and I certainly have a good reason for it, too. For three years I suffered terribly from rheumatism in my arms and shoulders, couldn't hold to the banisters and pull myself upstairs and my back felt just like it would break in two. My housework was something I could not do, and I did not care to eat, and all during the day I felt like lying right down and going to sleep

"I saw in the paper one day where Tanlac had relieved someone who seemed to have a case just like mine, so I started taking it, and finished my sixth bottle some time ago. I have not had a pain in my arms or shoulders in two months now. I can actually run upstairs, and I call that fine for a person of my age. I go about my housework singing, for I never feel tired or sleepy any more, and my appetite is so good I am always ready to eat at meal time. I want everybody to know what a good medicine Tanlac is."

AFTER THE WORK'S DONE.

When Aristotle long ago said that the right use of leisure was the chief end in education, he little dreamed that in our day this idea would be used in support of a plea for a change in education.

In an article in the current number of one of our magazines the writer contends that the students who go into business and industry thru the doors of a college training get only the technical education required for their work. They get no training in the right use of their leisure after the routine work of the day. For the vast majority of our boys and girls college doors never open at all, and only a relatively small number finishes even high school. In an age when most work is done by machinery, when even a good share of the remainder is mechanical and routine, it is pointed out, these children should be given training which in later years would help them to make better use of their leisure time.

Most parents and teachers will agree that this suggestion is worthy of consideration. We can ill afford to neglect the fact that what use people make of their leisure time is very important both as a matter of social welfare and business efficiency. While it is not proposed to restrict the individual in his pleasures the community should aim to make these pleasures as wholesome as possible for the individual and society.

SIMPLE PRAYER BEST

In these days when it is not uncommon to hear a minister praised because of his "beautiful prayers," by "beautiful" being meant ornateness of phraseology, it is refreshing and timely that a clergyman has seen fit to declare that simple prayers, like that taught by the Founder of Christianity, are best.

Prayers hardly are a fit subject for studied oratory. Those that come from the heart not infrequently are marked by unconscious eloquence. But it is contrary to the spirit of Christianity that one should compose supplications to the Almighty with regard rather to what men will think of them than to how the Deity will view them. And it is to be feared that it is the effect on the congregation rather than the effect on God which is in the minds of the authors of some of these elaborate prayers against which we are warned. Moreover, the effect of such prayers on the congregation is likely to be other than what the minister intended: for the very complexity of the language may divert the listeners' thoughts from God to the orator.

Christians have been counselled by the Supreme Authority on such matters not to pray ostentatiously, as the hypocrites do, "that they may be seen of men," but to address God in the simple, earnest way in which a child would present a plea to his father. And it would seem that that advice was intended to apply to public prayers as well as to those spoken in the secrecy of the closet.

HAS GREECE COLLAPSED?

The swift shift in the news from the Turko-Grecian front, from a comprehensive retreat by the Greeks and vindictive pursuit by the Turks into a desperate stand and a crushing defeat for the pursuers, may be partially explained inferentially by later news from far behind the lines.

Paris reports vague discussions in official quarters in anticipation of the contemplated to the French capital of Premier Gounaris in search of money to keep the war going. The Greek prime minister is reported as approaching Paris and London for cash, with which military campaigns can be fought, and the Turk driven into a safe corral. The French government is prepared to be informed that neither France or England can see the necessity for defeating the Turks through the medium of Greek arms, Premier Gounaris is prepared to bring operations to a stop.

France also is prepared to learn that neither the French or British governments is willing or able to give Greece the financial support desired. In fact, influential judgement in Paris is that Premier Briand will waste no time in telling Gounaris that France has thrown all the cash into the Balkan struggle she can afford—perhaps more, and possibly more that the expected but disappointing results are worth.

COLUMBIA PROFESSOR MINISTER TO DENMARK

New York, Nov. 1.—Dr. John Dyneley Prince, professor of Slavonic languages at Columbia University, who was recently appointed United States Minister to Denmark, leaves today for his diplomatic post. He expects to devote part of his time in Denmark to continuing studies of that country's history and ancient incriptions.

"I have sentimental reason for being glad that I am sent to Denmark, as part of my own family originally came to America from that part of England settled by King Canute's Danes," he said. "In fact, my very name 'Dyneteley means Danelaw,' a name given to those settlements by the early English.

Dr. Prince is the second member of his family to hold a diplomatic position for the United States. His grandfather, Johnson, was minister to England shortly after the Civil war.

After being graduated from Columbia in 1888, Dr. Prince accompanied an expedition which excavated for antiquities in southern Babylonia. His studies of ancient inscriptions were later carried on at the University of Berlin and elsewhere in Europe. His knowledge of language embraces the Semetic and Latin tongues as well as Slavonic. Each recent summer he devoted to studying Indian tribal languages in Maine and Canada.

The gaiety began early in the evening, and for several hours the guests were entertained with music, games, and Hallowe'en stunts. The house was decorated in keeping with the event, pumpkin jack-o-lanterns were used for lighting. At the close of the evening a sumptous supper was served. * * *

Entertained Club.—
Mrs. Helen Bradford, assisted by her daughter Bess, and Mrs. J. W. Natwick, entertained the members of the Entre Nous club, and a few invited guests Monday evening at a six thirty o'clock dinner, followed by a Hallowe'en frolic. The house was prettily and appropriately decorated with streamers of yellow crepe paper, witches, goblins, and yellow chrysanthemums. Following dinner the evenings hilarity began with a heart game at which Miss Katherine Ritchie proved to be the winner. The next stunt, a fish pond, was the most exciting of the evening. When the fair anglers threw in their line the first time, they drew forth paper Hallowe'en caps, all wearing them the balance of the evening. But listen, the next cast brought forth a paper fish which was something akin to Jonah's whale, owing to the fact that it had swallowed, not a man, but instead a fortune telling prophecy. Heart beats could be plainly heard, as each fair maiden, with trembling fingers drew forth her fate, but from all accounts Wisconsin Rapids marriages will be plentiful the coming year, and our esteemed county clerk may develop writers cramp from the marriage certificates he is due to issue. Another very pleasant event of the evening were several vocal selections by the Misses Ruby Treutel and Hortense Metzger, who captivated the guests with their melodius singing. They were accompanied on the piano by Miss Bess Bradford. A weird and exciting ghost story concluded the evening's entertainment.

CHICAGO POLICE CHIEF REFUSES RESIGNATION

Chicago, Nov. 2—Hurried conferences between city hall leaders, rumors of resignations under fire, and the return of Mayor Thompson to his office all indicated yesterday that the breach between State's Attorney Crowe and Chief of Police Fitzmorris over "open vice conditions" has widened beyond possibility of reconciliation and that the warfare between the two offices declared last Saturday night has but begun.

Developments of the Day

Developments of the day were equally as sensational as any which have preceded them. Briefly, they were:

Announcement by the mayor that he would keep "hands off."

Suspension by Chief Fitzmorris of Sergt. Thomas O'Malley, head of the police assigned to the state's attorneys office, pending the filing of charges.

Announcement by the state's attorney's office that O'Malley had been placed on Mr. Crowe's own pay roll at a higher salary and would retain command of the police.

Return by the grand jury of ten true bills against keepers of disorderly houses arrested in raids the last few days by the state's attorney's police.

Summoning of Chief Fitzmorris to the mayor's office, following which he declined to comment on the rumor that he had resigned.

"Sentimental Tommy"

By Benjamin De Casseres

IF "SENTIMENTAL TOMMY" a film play made by the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation from the famous romance of Sir James Barrie, directed by John S. Robertson, does not mark a turning-point in the history of the motion picture, then I am neither a prophet nor the son of a prophet.

FOR HERE is an intensely gripping and fascinating story without a villian, a cabaret scene, a vamp, a death-scene, a pistol, a repentant chorus girl or any of the other stock 'shots' of moviedom.

IT IS A PLAY dug right out of life as you and I know it each day, with characters in it that are no better nor worse than our common human nature. There are no saints or sinners in "Sentimental Tommy," but just human beings, which are always fifty-fifty in faults and virtues. And, then, what is rarer than meeting real human beings—even as you and I—in fiction. Well, you meet them in every scene in this dramatization of Barrie's famous study of Tommy the Make-Believe, Tommy the delightful—and baleful — self-deceiver.

LIKE "PETER PAN," "Huckleberry Finn" and "The Prince and the Pauper," it is a play for little men and women and those overgrown children that we call adults. It is fantastic, humorous, pathetic, romantic, thought-evoking—but never mawkish or commonplace.

THE ACTORS in this film play do memorable work. They are Scotch to the finest detail. Their faces, gestures and make-up are ground into the mind of the beholder. The play "touched me"—and to a case-hardened "movie" fan like myself that is something to do.

GARETH HUGHES AS "TOMMY" does some of the best acting that has ever been done on a film. May McAvoy as "Grizel" is pathos, strength and pride incarnate. Malcolm Bradley as "Dominie Cathro," the schoolmaster, and George Fawcett as "Doctor MacQueen" are absolutely perfect types: so are Leila Frost as "Elspeth," Kempton Greene as "Doctor Gemmell," and Mabel Taliaferro as "The Painted Lady."

It is only a labor of love that could have created this picture—Mr. Robertson has certainly performed this labor.

Take Evans' Triple Phosphate With Meals
Gain Several Pounds of Solid Stay-There Flesh

In one month's time EVANS' TRIPLE PHOSPHATES puts on several pounds of solid red blooded flesh and changes your weak, run-down, nervous tired body into a strong, vigorous robust one or money back.

Of course medical men are surprised and many are still unbelievers, but the fact is evident to every up-to-date pharmacist that Evans' Triple Phosphates will produce flesh without violent methods, face creams, daily massage or beauty torture.

In order to assimilate the nourishing food thin people daily take into the body and turn it into healthy, red blood corpuscles, the nerves that control the process of digestion and assimilation must be put in first-class shape, and that is one of the first things Evans' Triple Phosphates does.

Evans' Triple Phosphates comes in small tablet form; a ten days' treatment in each box, and one month's treatment is guaranteed to increase your weight at least several pounds, and in ten days make you feel like a new being, full of ambition, vigor and a desire to accomplish things. All good druggists have agreed to supply Evans' Triple Phosphates and guarantee it to do just what is claimed for it, or money refunded.

Even though Evans' Triple Phosphates works wonders in all cases of nervous, digestive and blood troubles, don't take it unless you really desire to put on flesh, gain weight.—Advertisement—6.

Hallowe'en festivities were enjoyed Monday evening by a crowd of sixteen jolly girls who were entertained by Miss Helen Smolarek, at her home, 1354 Fifth avenue north. The gaiety began early in the evening, and for several hours the guests were entertained with music, games, and Hallowe'en stunts. The house was decorated in keeping with the event, pumpkin jack-o-lanterns were used for lighting. At the close of the evening a sumptous supper was served. Hallowe'en stunts, and ghost stories, concluded the evenings mirth and enjoyment, and at nine o'clock dainty refreshments were served. Those who enjoyed Miss Baldwin's hospitality were the Misses Mary Horton, Florence Duncan, Perdita Grunwell, Mildred Schroeder, Ethel Wellner, Helen Davenport, Margaret Baldwin, and Ruth and Lucille Vaughn.

Entertained Club.—

Mrs. Helen Bradford, assisted by her daughter Bess, and Mrs. J. W. Natwick, entertained the members of the Entre Nous club, and a few invited guests Monday evening at a six thirty o'clock dinner, followed by a Hallowe'en frolic. The house was prettily and appropriately decorated with streamers of yellow crepe paper, witches, goblins, and yellow chrysanthemums. Following dinner the evenings hilarity began with a heart game at which Miss Katherine Ritchie proved to be the winner. The next stunt, a fish pond, was the most exciting of the evening. When the fair anglers threw in their line the first time, they drew forth paper Hallowe'en caps, all wearing them the balance of the evening. But listen, the next cast brought forth a paper fish which was something akin to Jonah's whale, owing to the fact that it had swallowed, not a man, but instead a fortune telling prophecy. Heart beats could be plainly heard, as each fair maiden, with trembling fingers drew forth her fate, but from all accounts Wisconsin Rapids marriages will be plentiful the coming year, and our esteemed county crerk may develop writers cramp from the marriage certificates he is due to issue. Another very pleasant event of the evening were several vocal selections by the Misses Ruby Trentel and Hortense Metzger, who captivated the guests with their melodius singing. They were accompanied on the piano by Miss Bess Bradford. A weird and exciting ghost story concluded the evening's entertainment.

CHICAGO POLICE CHIEF REFUSES RESIGNATION

Chicago, Nov. 2—Hurried conferences between city hall leaders, rumors of resignations under fire, and the return of Mayor Thompson to his office all indicated yesterday that the breach between State's Attorney Crowe and Chief of Police Fitzmorris over "open vice conditions" has widened beyond possibility of reconciliation and that the warfare between the two offices declared last Saturday night has but begun.

Developments of the Day

Developments of the day were equally as sensational as any which have preceded them. Briefly, they were:

Announcement by the mayor that he would keep "hands off."

Suspension by Chief Fitzmorris of Sergt. Thomas O'Malley, head of the police assigned to the state's attorneys office, pending the filing of charges.

Announcement by the state's attorney's office that O'Malley had been placed on Mr. Crowe's own pay roll at a higher salary and would retain command of the police.

Return by the grand jury of ten true bills against keepers of disorderly houses arrested in raids the last few days by the state's attorney's police.

Summoning of Chief Fitzmorris to the mayor's office, following which he declined to comment on the rumor that he had resigned.

"Sentimental Tommy"

By Benjamin De Casseres

IF "SENTIMENTAL TOMMY" a film play made by the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation from the famous romance of Sir James Barrie, directed by John S. Robertson, does not mark a turning-point in the history of the motion picture, then I am neither a prophet nor the son of a prophet.

FOR HERE is an intensely gripping and fascinating story without a villian, a cabaret scene, a vamp, a death-scene, a pistol, a repentant chorus girl or any of the other stock 'shots' of moviedom.

IT IS A PLAY dug right out of life as you and I know it each day, with characters in it that are no better nor worse than our common human nature. There are no saints or sinners in "Sentimental Tommy," but just human beings, which are always fifty-fifty in faults and virtues. And, then, what is rarer than meeting real human beings—even as you and I—in fiction. Well, you meet them in every scene in this dramatization of Barrie's famous study of Tommy the Make-Believe, Tommy the delightful—and baleful — self-deceiver.

LIKE "PETER PAN," "Huckleberry Finn" and "The Prince and the Pauper," it is a play for little men and women and those overgrown children that we call adults. It is fantastic, humorous, pathetic, romantic, thought-evoking—but never mawkish or commonplace.

Marinette High School Claims State Grid Title

Marinette, Wis.—Marinette high school lays claim to the Badger state high school championship by virtue of East Green Bay's tied score with Oshkosh on Saturday. Oshkosh was considered with Madison, as the logical contender for the pennant honors, with Marinette running second, until last Saturday when East Green Bay, defeated by Marinette, 2 to 0, tied the Sawdust city clan, 6 to 6.

Marinette's record this year stands out and above the other schools in the state by such a wide margin that they are being acknowledged by other schools as the champions of Wisconsin.

The Queen City aggregation defeated such teams as Chippewa Falls, 17 to 3. Chippewa was the big team in the western part of the state and since then has cleaned everything. Marinette's decisive victory over them, placed the northern city clan at the top rung of the ladder.

East Green Bay, acknowledged as one of the best teams in the middle eastern section of the state, fell a victim to Marinette and thus were eliminated from the state race. Besides the above mentioned scores, Marinette has defeated Sturgeon Bay, 96 to 0; Escanaba, 14 to 0; Fond du Lac, 10 to 0, and meet the heavy Oconto team on Saturday. Marinette has scored 161 points to their opponent's 23.

Rockford, Ill., high school, champions of the Sucker state have already negotiated for a game with the Marinette eleven in an effort to decide the championship of the middle west for high schools. This is the first time in the history of football, such an attempt has been made. Marinette is ready to meet Rockford and it is believed that this game will materialize some time on or about Nov. 19, either at Rockford, Marinette or Milwaukee.

RICHARDS EASY ON GRID SQUAD

CARDINAL TEAM TAKING IT EASY WITH TWO WEEKS TO PREPARE FOR MICHIGAN ELEVEN

Madison—Following their slashing victory over Minnesota, Wisconsin's grid heroes were given practically a vacation Monday evening. Signal drill, some limbering up exercises and a few pointers made up the workout which closed early. The coach intimated he will go fairly easy on his men this week and then send them off in a concentrated drill during next week for the all-important Michigan game Nov. 12. While Richards realizes the Wolverines may have been overestimated during the fore part of the season, he also knows that Yost's men are on the rise rather than decline just now as evidenced by their battle against Illinois Saturday. He will not take any chances with the Ann Harbor outfit in the clamor to prepare for the Maroons a week later.

Scrimmage All-Americans

Coach Lowman's All-Americans will offer the major portion of scrimmage this week, it being left to them to put on the Yost plays. Holmes, Barr and several good linemen are among the ineligibles who have perfected some of "Hurry-Up's" formations. The freshmen eleven will begin work at once on Chicago plays.

Most of the men are in good shape after the Gopher massacre. The backfield came out of it O. K. even Gibson escaping additional bruises. Sundt hurt his shoulder a little but not seriously. Indications point to a well conditioned team for the Wolverines in two weeks. Meantime all hands are fighting to keep down the danger of overconfidence.

Football remained the talk of the campus all during Monday's exercises. Heavy eyelids and heavier heads drooped on all sides, save when they snapped to attention at the mention of the magic names, Williams, Elliott, Gould, Sundt, Brader—or the rest of the idolized eleven.

HARVARD AROUSED BY HOSTILE ACTS

Cambridge, Mass.—Hostility against the Harvard football team in its own stadium, marked by booing and catcalls in early games and by assault on Crimson players as they were leaving the field last Saturday, has caused the graduate athletic authorities to decide on a new plan of ticket distribution.

Hereafter season tickets will be sold through Harvard graduates only. Admission tickets, however, will be sold for preliminary games as heretofore.

Incidents in the Harvard cheering section, where several groups came to blows during Saturday's game, have indicated a need for a new method of university ticket distribution also, it was said. The fights were found to be between Harvard undergraduates and graduates of other colleges who were taking post-graduate work at Harvard, according to official information. As a result, it now is planned to admit to the Crimson cheering section only undergraduates.

MARQUETTE U COACH OFFERS RESIGNATION

Milwaukee—Coach Jack Ryan of the Marquette university football team, will quit his position at the completion of the season, it was learned on Tuesday. His contract with the Hilltops expires on Dec. 1.

Lack of co-operation and interest on the part of the faculty and the student body is given as the direct cause for Ryan's decision.

"I have not received just treatment thus far this season," Coach Ryan said on Monday. "Last Friday night at a rally the faculty notified me not to make an address to the student body."

Ryan apparently sees the handwriting on the wall. Last week Ed. Cochems, former Wisconsin university football star, and more recently coach of the university of St. Louis team, was brought in as "assistant coach". This move has been unpopular with Ryan's grinders, according to the present coach.

West Virginia has much to answer for, but its secretary of state won't add chartering the Ku Klux to its offenses. That's progress.

RED CROSS IS STILL DOING GREAT SERIVCE

Chicago—Work for disabled World War Veterans in which $10,000,000 was expended last year by the American Red Cross has cost chapters here in Wisconsin more than $154,000. Service to men in the standing army and navy as well as exservice men and their families is an obligation which the American Red Cross is pledged to continue and for which public support is asked in the Annual Roll Call which opens Armistice Day—November 11 and continues until Thanksgiving.

The annual cost of discharging this obligation to ex-service men and their families is $4,000,000 in excess of the aggregate receipts of the last years membership enrollment. The greater part of this financial responsibility is met by the local chapters which spent approximately $7,000,000 in this work during the last fiscal year. Throughout the country there are 2,329 Red Cross chapters still, helping to solve the veterans problem of adjusting himself to a normal civil basis.

That this problem of the disabled service man is ever expanding and will not reach its peak before 1925 is the assertion of well informed government officials. Consequently chapter budgets for the coming year must take into account the maintainance and increasing of this service.

A Tribune Want Ad Will Find It.

BLAINE DISCUSSES NEW ROAD BUILDING PROGRAM

Madison, Wis., Nov. 1.—Wisconsin's road building program for 1922 was discussed by Governor Blaine and the state highway commission here late yesterday. Plans were made for spending the $15,000,000 which the commission expects will be available for construction activities of the coming year.

This amount is nearly $9,000,000 less than the commission directed in its expenditures this past season, when $24,000,000 was put into new roads, and maintenance of those already built. Cheaper construction costs for 1922 are expected to make posible the building of a new mileage almost up to that of 1921.

Governor Blaine has always been an advocate of a complete system of highways such as has been mapped out by the state commission, and is known to be favorable to the program of A. R. Hirst, chief state highway engineer who has directed the road building work of Wisconsin since 1909.

Work on the 350 miles of concrete highway constructed this year, is practically complete, Mr. Hirst says. Gravel and grading work, however, will be continued, he says, until the weather makes further operations impossible. A long fall has been favorable to extensive construction up to the present, and has given contractors plenty of time to complete their jobs.

It is expected that several million dollars will be available directly from the state treasury at the opening of building operations next year. Automobile taxes bring in approximately $4,000,000 annually for maintenance work, and a large amount of its fund unexpended, the commission is expected to be ready to start the coming year prepared for extensive building.

RAIL COMMISSION TO INVESTIGATE GAS RATES

Madison, Wis., Nov. 1.—Investigation of gas rates at Chippewa Falls and Eau Claire with a view to reduction, was instituted by the railroad commission today on its own motion. This is in line with the suggestion of Governor Blaine that utility rates in the state be surveyed by the rate-making body, to determine if cuts are advisable at the present time.

The Wisconsin Railway, Light and Power company has applied to the commission for authority to increase its rate at Onalaska, and has received approval of local authorities for the increase, according to the railroad commission. The village of Spring Green is asking authority to sell its municipal electric plant to the Wisconsin River Power company.

Marinette High School Claims State Grid Title

Marinette, Wis.—Marinette high school lays claim to the Badger state high school championship by virtue of East Green Bay's tied score with Oshkosh on Saturday. Oshkosh was considered with Madison, as the logical contender for the pennant honors, with Marinette running second, until last Saturday when East Green Bay, defeated by Marinette, 2 to 0, tied the Sawdust city clan, 6 to 6.

Marinette's record this year stands out and above the other schools in the state by such a wide margin that they are being acknowledged by other schools as the champions of Wisconsin.

The Queen City aggregation defeated such teams as Chippewa Falls, 17 to 3. Chippewa was the big team in the western part of the state and since then has cleaned everything. Marinette's decisive victory over them, placed the northern city clan at the top rung of the ladder.

East Green Bay, acknowledged as one of the best teams in the middle eastern section of the state, fell a victime to Marinette and thus were eliminated from the state race. Besides the above mentioned scores, Marinette has defeated Sturgeon Bay, 96 to 0; Escanaba, 14 to 0; Fond du Lac, 10 to 0, and meet the heavy Oconto team on Saturday. Marinette has scored 161 points to their opponent's 23.

Rockford, Ill., high school, champions of the Sucker state have already negotiated for a game with the Marinette eleven in an effort to decide the championship of the middle west for high schools. This is the first time in the history of football, such an attempt has been made. Marinette is ready to meet Rockford and it is believed that this game will materialize some time on or about Nov. 19, either at Rockford, Marinette or Milwaukee.

RICHARDS EASY ON GRID SQUAD

CARDINAL TEAM TAKING IT EASY WITH TWO WEEKS TO PREPARE. FOR MICHIGAN ELEVEN

Madison—Following their slashing victory over Minnesota, Wisconsin's grid heroes were given practically a vacation Monday evening. Signal drill some limbering up exercises and a few pointers made up the workout which closed early. The coach intimated he will go fairly easy on his men this week and then send them off in a concentrated drill during next week for the all-important Michigan game Nov. 12. While Richards realizes the Wolverines may have been overestimated during the fore part of the season, he also knows that Yost's men are on the rise rather than decline just now as evidenced by their battle against Illinois Saturday. He will not take any chances with the Ann Harbor outfit in the clamor to prepare for the Maroons a week later.

Scrimmage All-Americans

Coach Lowman's All-Americans will offer the major portion of scrimmage this week, it being left to them to put on the Yost plays. Holmes, Barr and several good linemen are among the ineligibles who have perfected some of "Hurry-Up's" formations. The freshmen eleven will begin work at once on Chicago plays.

Most of the men are in good shape after the Gopher massacre. The backfield came out of it O. K. even Gibson escaping additional bruises. Sundt hurt his shoulder a little but not seriously. Indications point to a well conditioned team for the Wolverines in two weeks. Meantime all hands are fighting to keep down the danger of overconfidence.

Football remained the talk of the campus all during Monday's exercises. Heavy eyelids and heavier heads drooped on all sides, save when they snapped to attention at the mention of the magic names, Williams, Elliott, Gould, Sundt, Brader—or the rest of the idolized eleven.

HARVARD AROUSED BY HOSTILE ACTS

Cambridge, Mass.—Hostility against the Harvard football team in its own stadium, marked by booing and catcalls in early games and by assault on Crimson players as they were leaving the field last Saturday, has caused the graduate athletic authorities to decide on a new plan of ticket distribution.

Hereafter season tickets will be sold through Harvard graduates only. Admission tickets, however, will be sold for preliminary games as heretofore.

Incidents in the Harvard cheering section, where several groups came to blows during Saturday's game, have indicated a need for a new method of university ticket distribution also, it was said. The fights were found to be between Harvard undergraduates and graduates of other colleges who were taking post-graduate work at Harvard according to official information. As a result, it now is planned to admit to the Crimson cheering section only undergraduates.

MARQUETTE U COACH OFFERS RESIGNATION

Milwaukee—Coach Jack Ryan of the Marquette university football team, will quit his position at the completion of the season, it was learned on Tuesday. His contract with the Hilltops expires on Dec. 1.

Lack of co-operation and interest on the part of the faculty and the student body is given as the direct cause for Ryan's decision.

"I have not received just treatment thus far this season," Coach Ryan said on Monday. "Last Friday night at a rally the faculty notified me not to make an address to the student body."

Ryan apparently sees the handwriting on the wall. Last week Ed. Cochems, former Wisconsin university football star, and more recently coach of the university of St. Louis team, was brought in as "assistant coach". This move has been unpopular with Ryan's gridders, according to the present coach.

West Virginia has much to answer for, but its secretary of state won't add chartering the Ku Klux to its offenses. That's progress.

RED CROSS IS STILL DOING GREAT SERIVCE

Chicago—Work for disabled World War Veterans in which $10,000,000 was expended last year by the American Red Cross has cost chapters here in Wisconsin more than $154,000. Service to men in the standing army and navy as well as exservice men and their families is an obligation which the American Red Cross is pledged to continue and for which public support is asked in the Annual Roll Call which opens Armistice Day—November 11 and continues until Thanksgiving.

The annual cost of discharging this obligation to ex-service men and their families is $4,000,000 in excess of the aggregate receipts of the last years membership enrollment. The greater part of this financial responsibility is met by the local chapters which spent approximately $7,000,000 in this work during the last fiscal year. Throughout the country there are 2,329 Red Cross chapters still, helping to solve the veterans problem of adjusting himself to a normal civil basis.

That this problem of the disabled service man is ever expanding and will not reach its peak before 1925 is the assertion of well informed government officials. Consequently chapter budgets for the coming year must take into account the maintainance and increasing of this service.

BLAINE DISCUSSES NEW ROAD BUILDING PROGRAM

Madison, Wis., Nov. 1.—Wisconsin's road building program for 1922 was discussed by Governor Blaine and the state highway commission here late yesterday. Plans were made for spending the $15,000,000 which the commission expects will be available for construction activities of the coming year.

This amount is nearly $9,000,000 less than the commission directed in its expenditures this past season, when $24,000,000 was put into new roads, and maintenance of those already built. Cheaper construction costs for 1922 are expected to make posible the building of a new mileage almost up to that of 1921.

Governor Blaine has always been an advocate of a complete system of highways such as has been mapped out by the state commission, and is known to be favorable to the program of A. R. Hirst, chief state highway engineer who has directed the road building work of Wisconsin since 1909.

Work on the 350 miles of concrete highway constructed this year, is practically complete, Mr. Hirst says. Gravel and grading work, however, will be continued, he says, until the weather makes further operations impossible. A long fall has been favorable to extensive construction up to the present, and has given contractors plenty of time to complete their jobs.

It is expected that several million dollars will be available directly from the state treasury at the opening of building operations next year. Automobile taxes bring in approximately $4,000,000 annually for maintenance work, and a large amount of its fund unexpended, the commission is expected to be ready to start the coming year prepared for extensive building.

RAIL COMMISSION TO INVESTIGATE GAS RATES

Madison, Wis., Nov. 1.—Investigation of gas rates at Chippewa Falls and Eau Claire with a view to reduction, was instituted by the railroad commission today on its own motion. This is in line with the suggestion of Governor Blaine that utility rates in the state be surveyed by the rate-making body, to determine if cuts are advisable at the present time.

The Wisconsin Railway, Light and Power company has applied to the commission for authority to increase its rate at Onalaska, and has received approval of local authorities for the increase, according to the railroad commission. The village of Spring Green is asking authority to sell its municipal electric plant to the Wisconsin River Power company.
